Tennessee Boy Wins Spelldown

3rd Time Is Charm For 13-Year-Old

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Feldman, 13, Oak Ridge, Tenn., won the 1960 National Spelling Bee today. He had tried twice before.

Runner-up was Betty Jean Altschul, 12, Norfolk, Va. Henry clinched the title by the correct spelling of the word "eudaemonic". The word means producing happiness.

Before that Henry had correctly spelled "vellety". Betty Jean missed that one by spelling it "vellette". That word means the lowest degree of desire, mere willingness.

Under the rules, the winner must spell correctly the word his opponent misses then spell one more word correctly. This Henry did after the two finalists had both slipped up on several words. The new champion finished 20th last year. He was also in the national contest in 1958.

Three contestants fell victim to "increasingly difficult words in today's first round as the 33rd annual spelling bee resumed.

That left 21 competing for the 1960 national championship.

Spelled down in today's first round were Laurel Pratt, 11, Anchorage, Alaska; Jacquelyn Sharkey, 12, Columbus, Ohio; and Allen Watts, 13, Haines City, Fla.

Laurel tripped on "ochlocracy" by misspelling it "ochlochracy". It means mob rule.

Jacquelyn missed on "farinaceous". She used an "o" for the "i". The word means made of meal or flour.

Allen failed to put in the second "i" in "ocellus", a zoological word meaning a little eye.

These three and the other 21 waded through 10 rounds of difficult words Wednesday to reach today's finals, while 49 others of the record 73 entrants were spelled down. All are regional champions and represent some 70 communities.

Among those spelled down yesterday, was James Roseman, 12, of Massillon who tripped on "moieties".

The girls outnumbered the boys 16-8 as today's session began.

Since the start of the national bees in 1925—with several years out for World War II—the girls have defeated the boys 2-1 in winning top national honors.

The first 10 rounds used up 519 words from the judges' prepared list.

First prize of $1,000 in cash and a weekend trip to New York goes to the champion.

Man Faces Trial For Attempted Rape

LISBON — Preliminary hearing for William H. Thomas of Wells-ville will be held Friday at 1 p. m. in County Judge James L. MacDonald's court.

Thomas was cited for unlawful assault with intent to rape. Police said he grabbed a woman in Wells-ville last Friday night and tried to force her into his car. She broke away, and residents, hearing her scream, called police.

Thomas is free on $500 bond set Monday by Judge MacDonald.

Hargrove Plans to Ask For Mrs. Clark's Hand

Found Innocent of Killing Her Husband

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Lois Clark and Floyd E. Hargrove, the latter only Wednesday acquitted of a charge of murder in her husband's death, planned a meeting today. Hargrove said he hoped she would consent to marry him.

The two spoke in a brief telephone conversation less than three hours after a Lake County jury decided Hargrove was innocent of the Christmas Eve slaying of Charles R. Clark, 35.

As for asking for her hand, Hargrove, who carried on an eight-month love affair with the beautiful mother of four children, said: "I don't know whether I have the right to ask her—to subject her to further public view and criticism."

"But I love her deeply as ever. Maybe we could move away some where where people never heard of the name Floyd Hargrove."

The 31-year-old Mrs. Clark said she would meet Hargrove at some undisclosed place before starting on a vacation trip to California with her children.

Hargrove, also 35, said he wanted to discuss with her what future, if any, they have together. "It will be difficult for both of us, no matter what happens," he said.

Clark, an engineering executive, Sunday school teacher and Boy Scout leader, was killed by a .22-caliber rifle bullet which crashed through a kitchen window of his home in Mentor.

The jurors, citing "inconclusive evidence," freed the former laundry delivery truck driver after deliberations.

Dems Join Republican to Back Minerva Man For Postmaster

Senator Stephen Young, a Democrat, today urged approval of the recommendation of Rep. Frank Bow, a Republican, that Robert J. Davis be appointed postmaster at Minerva, after Rep. Wayne Hays, a Democrat, favored Davis, a Republican, for the post.

Rep. Hays of the 18th District made his recommendation after it was discovered that 52 per cent of the patrons served by the Minerva Post office reside in Columbiana and Carroll Counties, which are part of the 18th district.

Rep. Bow's recommendation of Mr. Davis, a 34-year veteran in the Minerva post office, has been opposed by Paul Perkins, the Stark County Democratic leader.

Sen. Young, replying to Rep. Hays' recommendation, said "I am today recommending in writing to the senate committee on postoffice and civil service that Robert J. Davis be confirmed at Minerva."

The story also said in part: Construction, expected to start soon, is to be paid for out of $100,000 remaining in an appropriation voted in 1958 to remodel "rusty plumbing" in the office building.

The pool is to be constructed in the private senatorial "health suite" out of public view under a stairway on the ground floor of the building. The "health suite" already contains an 8-by-12 foot pool and private dressing rooms "worthy of the baths of ancient Rome."

The new pool would be hidden in more ways than one. A search of available records failed to turn up any report, hearing or legislation mentioning the pool. Its senatorial sponsors apparently hoped to build the pool without anybody knowing it.

The Senate Office Building Commission, of which Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) is chairman, gave the pool the green light at a closed meeting 10 days ago.

No one would give the estimated cost of the pool.

Rockefeller Rips Nixon's Silence On Vital Issues

Governor Briefed Ike On Blast; Will Lead New York Delegation

NEW YORK (AP)—New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has challenged Vice President Richard M. Nixon to declare himself now on vital issues, not after the GOP national convention. The governor also assailed numerous administration policies.

In a move that caught political friend and foe by complete surprise, the draft-available Rockefeller said Wednesday in a statement:

Finds Attitude Unreasonable

"I find it unreasonable in these times that the leading Republican candidate for the presidential nomination has firmly insisted upon making known his program and his policies not before, but only after, nomination by his party."

Neither the nation nor the GOP, Rockefeller said, can march into the future holding a banner "whose only emblem is a question mark."

Nixon and Rockefeller may meet face to face here Friday. Both are scheduled to appear at a luncheon honoring Prince Philip of Britain.

Rockefeller apparently briefed President Eisenhower at a break fast conference at the White House before flying here and releasing his 2,700-word statement.

Contained Praise For Ike

The statement contained only praise for the President, but noted that his service was ending. Rockefeller criticized the administration's handling of defense, education, medical and labor-management programs, and urged a reorganization of the whole government structure especially in view of the U2 spy plane incident.

There was no comment from Eisenhower or Nixon. Nixon conferred privately with the President Wednesday afternoon following a meeting of the National Security Council.

Rockefeller also announced he would head the New York state delegation to the GOP convention in Chicago.

Reappraisal Job Nearly Done Here

The reappraisal of real estate in Salem for taxing purposes is expected to be finished this week or next.

Kenneth Bell, county auditor, said four men of an original 10-man crew are working now to finish the project. Work began in March.

Countywide, the reappraisal is about 50 per cent complete, with East Liverpool, Wellsville and Columbiana being the major areas where most or all of the appraisals must still be made.

Mr. Bell indicated the reappraisal should be on the tax duplicate in 1962 for collection in 1963.

4 Persons Injured In Area Highway Mishaps

Four persons were injured in traffic accidents on area highways Wednesday.

Lisbon Post State Highway Patrolmen reported a mother and daughter injured in an accident at 1:05 p. m. on Rt. 7 about a mile and a half north of Rogers when their car was hit in the rear while making a left turn.

The injured were treated by a Columbiana physician. They were Mrs. Doris Hawkins, 29, RD 1, Leetonia, driver of one car, and her daughter, Susan Kay, aged one. Mrs. Hawkins suffered bruises and a possible back injury and her daughter, cuts of the head and bruises.

Driver of the other car, Bryan Johnson, 25, of New Brighton, Pa., was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

East Germans Free U.S. Pilot

Ohioan Landed Glider By Error In Kluetz

LUEBECK, Germany (AP) — East German border police today gave three glider crewmen permission to drive a trailer into Communist territory to pick up American pilot Richard E. Schreder of Toledo, Ohio, and his sail plane.

The crew left immediately for Kluetz, East Germany, where Schreder landed by mistake Wednesday during long distance competition in the world gliding championships being held at Cologne.

A spokesman for the East German Foreign Ministry said Schreder's crossing through the Iron Curtain was "not regarded as a serious case."

The 44-year-old American took off from Cologne Wednesday morning with 54 other pilots bound for the West German island of Fehmarn, 30 miles north of the East German Baltic coast.

The latter part of the route skirted the East German frontier, and in midafternoon Schreder radioed he was over water, was having trouble and was looking for land.

The East German radio station at Ruegen radioed just after midnight that Schreder had landed his sailplane safely 19 miles east of Wismar, in the East German Province of Mecklenburg.

The Ruegen broadcast did not say what disposition would be made of Schreder or whether he was held by the East Germans or the Soviet occupation forces.

But officials at Butzeleerhof Air Field near Cologne were hopeful that the Communists would release the American soon. They explained that the East Germans in the past have made no trouble

Defense Bill Approval Predicted by Senators

Amount Greater Than Voted by House

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two senators who helped prepare a $40,166,097,000 defense money bill predicted today the Senate Appropriations Committee will approve it Friday without major changes.

That forecast came from Chairman Dennis Chavez (D-NM) and Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.), a member of the Appropriations subcommittee. That group added 828 million dollars to the amount previously voted by the House.

Senate action on the bill is likely early next week, Chavez said. The total reached in two days of voting by the Chavez subcommittee is 950 million dollars more than President Eisenhower's revised budget requested, but it added to the House bill a number of items originally asked by the administration and cut out by the House.

At the same time the Senate group accepted 241 million added by the House to speed up construction of Polaris ballistic missile submarines and approved 42 million of a 100 million House increase to step up research and development for the Navy's anti-submarine warfare.

Biggest increase was restoration of 400 million the House had slashed by an across-the-board 3 per cent reduction in funds for procurement of missiles, aircraft and other military hardware.

The Senate group also restored 294 million the House had denied for production of anti-aircraft Bomarc missiles. And it added 75 million to this to complete two Pacific Northwest bases for the missiles.

It also added 285 million for the B70 jet supersonic bomber program. Sponsors said this should permit development of a complete weapons system for these high flying 2,000-mile-an-hour aircraft. The administration had cut back this program to provide only for two prototype flying craft.

A preliminary hearing in the case has been scheduled for Tuesday at 10 a. m. in Municipal Court. Victim of the shooting was William Swesey. Youngstown police said the shooting took place shortly after the pair registered at the New Vanier Hotel here Monday night.

They said when they arrived on the scene they found the Stice woman standing over Swesey's body in a corridor. The Stice woman told police Swesey had been beating her prior to the shooting incident.

New Facility Considered by Government

GSA Tells Rep. Hays Temporary Repairs Will Be Made

The government expects to abandon the Salem Post Office building at State and Lincoln sometime during the next fiscal year.

Temporary repairs to the facility also are planned.

This was the word received today by Congressman Wayne L. Hays from John William Chapman, regional commissioner, General Services Administration, Region 5, Chicago.

Text of Letter

Mr. Chapman, replying to a letter from Congressman Hays who asked why repairs to the Salem Post Office building had been neglected for so long, said:

"We have scheduled a meeting with the contractor at Salem for the purpose of letting a contract for plaster repairs and painting."

"The Post Office Department has advised us that they plan to abandon the Salem Post Office sometime during the fiscal year 1961. However, we plan to accomplish such other mandatory repairs as may be necessary to maintain the building weather-tight and keep the site safe for the public and postal employees."

"We expect to have the repairs accomplished during the first quarter of fiscal 1961."

Mr. Chapman did not elaborate on the Post Office Department's plans to abandon the local building, but Congressman Hays speculated that a new building, perhaps built under a lease agreement from a private owner, was being considered.

Repairs Due This Summer

The government's fiscal year begins July 1, indicating that the repairs would be made this summer and that abandonment plans were considered sometime during the next 12 to 13 months.

Representatives of the Cleveland office of the General Services Administration were here Tuesday, obtaining bid specifications for plaster repairs and painting.

The local Post Office was erected in 1915 but since that time no major repair or enlargement has been made. In the past 45 years the personnel has increased from 20 to 50 workers and gross postal receipts have climbed from about $33,000 in 1915 to an all-time record of over $290,000 last year, according to Assistant Postmaster C. Raymond Reich.

In the past few years plaster has been falling from the ceiling room. The original loading dock can hardly accommodate the big trucks which load and unload mail here.

School Personnel Rehired at Leetonia

LEETONIA — School personnel were rehired at the regular meeting of the Board of Education Wednesday night at Orchard Hill School.

Persons rehired included the custodians, bus drivers, cafeteria staff, secretarial staff and school nurse. The board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Helen Heim, high school librarian, and Clifford Anderson, principal of Washingtonville School.

The summer music education program planned by Karl Meinhardt, supervisor, was approved.

Members voted to continue the present student accident insurance policy, at a cost of $1.50 per student.

Dr. Guy Nicolette presided, with Wayne Holloway, Jack Ripley, Dr. Paul Beaver, Dr. Paul Conrad, Supt. Dr. W. W. Gephart and Clerk Mrs. Gladys Gause in attendance.

Missile Base Chief Declares Chances of Mishap Remote

MC GUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N.J. (AP)—The commander of the nation's first Bomarc missile base says the chances of his weapons ever causing an atomic mishap are "very remote, indeed."

"These Bomarcs are more fool-proof than soap," Brig. Gen. Gilbert L. Pritchard told a news conference Wednesday night.

Couple Seeks $16,500 As Result of Mishap

LISBON — A suit asking $16,500 has been filed in Common Pleas Court as the aftermath of a car accident May 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gourley of East Liverpool ask this amount from Jason C. Hyatt, 24, of East Liverpool.

Mrs. Gourley seeks $15,000 for injuries suffered when she allegedly was thrown from her bed when the defendant's car plunged over an embankment after it was involved in a collision with a car driven by Edwin E. Hemelrick, 38, of Garrettsville RD 2.

According to police, the auto didn't crash into the Gourley home but came to a halt a few feet from the residence.

Gourley claims $1,500 for the loss of his wife's services.

Pritchard, commander of the New York Air Defense Sector, told the meeting the Air Force assumed responsibility for Tuesday's radiation scare and the subsequent liaison breakdown between the service and state civil defense officials.

He said the safety device in a Bomarc's nuclear warhead made the likelihood of a fire's causing an atomic explosion extremely slight.

Nonetheless, he added, "special precautions," which he would not describe, were now being taken at the nation's two Bomarc anti-aircraft missile sites here and in Suffolk County, N.Y.

A needle-nosed Bomarc caught fire Tuesday at its launching site 12 miles east of here in a sparsely populated wooded area.

Pritchard said an Air Force sergeant phoned State Police to ask them to block off roads leading into the area.

"I am sure the sergeant either implied or stated there had been a nuclear explosion," Pritchard said.

He said the sergeant, Clarence Baldwin of the Air Force Police, "doesn't remember what he told State Police."

Pritchard said the fire was ignited by an explosion somewhere within the missile, closed in its concrete launching pen. A second explosion caused an evacuation of the immediate area.

Pritchard then accompanied firemen into the pen and determined nothing nuclear had detonated.

No one had been injured, but the Bomarc, which costs between one million dollars and $1,200,000, was destroyed.

Pritchard said an eight-man board representing the Atomic Energy Commission, the Boeing Aircraft Co., which makes the missile, his own staff, the Air Research and Development Command and the inspector general of the Air Force would investigate the fire.

PROGRAM PLANNED

LISBON — A program on outdoor cooking will be presented at the meeting of the Fairfield Friendly Neighbors No. 1 Home Demonstration Group Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Fuhrman, two miles west of East Fairfield, off Rt. 517.

Members are asked to bring a covered dish, their own table service and empty spoons.

The Unity Progressive Homemakers Demonstration Group will travel to Ambridge, Pa., for next Thursday. All members are asked to meet at the home of Mrs. A. C. Angle, at 393 W. North Ave., East Palestine, at 12:30 p.m.

MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

CINCINNATI (AP) — Elmer Ward of Lockland was killed by a freight train near here Wednesday and members of the train crew said they saw him walk onto the tracks and then lie down. They said they couldn't stop the train in time to avoid hitting him.

Ward's wife told police he had been "depressed."

Tribute to Two Fine Teachers

Two beloved Salem public school teachers will conclude long careers of public service when the 1959-60 term comes to a close Friday.

Undoubtedly, as report cards are distributed to youngsters eager for the summer recess, there will be a tinge of remorse for Miss Natalie Sharpnack, principal at McKinley, and Mrs. Ora Montgomery Lewis, principal at Prospect, as they leave the buildings for the last time.

But if there be a tear there must also be a happy realization by these two fine ladies that their patience, kindness and wise counseling through the years has helped untold numbers of Salem children to become better men and women. It is hard to find any other profession so noble as teaching that affects the lives of so many.

So, as Miss Sharpnack brings to a close a teaching career spanning 57 years and Mrs. Lewis 38 years, we join the thousands of parents who in unison would like to express their deepest appreciation and voice the fondest hopes that their retirement will be an equally happy period of their lives.

Drastic Surgery For Social Malignancy

The Supreme Court of the United States handed down a decision this week that applies specifically to a tiny area of the nation but can have far-reaching effect for the entire country.

It approved a compact between the states of New York and New Jersey, with the blessing of Congress, which bars ex-felons from the Port of New York either as workers or as union officials.

The story of gangsterism on New York's waterfront has become known widely through a variety of media. This publicity on the problem has stirred sympathy for the workers victimized by hoodlums, alarm at gangland influence on the nation's biggest port, concern over criminals' use of the waterfront situation to catapult themselves into positions of leadership not only in the underworld but in the union movement.

REPEATED EFFORTS along conventional lines had proved so ineffective in rooting out the source of the trouble that two states decided on drastic action, manifested in the pact provision for licensing of all workers and the refusal of licenses to any ex-felons who have not been pardoned or approved by state parole authorities.

Later legislation supplemented the compact with a provision that a union representing waterfront workers could not collect dues if any of its officers or agents ever had been convicted of felonies.

Justice Frankfurter, in the court's majority decision, conceded this was pretty drastic.

Another Tough Decision for Ike

President Eisenhower is on the spot. Should he go to Japan or not?

If he goes, it is with the risk that he would be the object of some ugly demonstrations by Japanese leftists who oppose the new treaty with the United States. Although adequate measures could be taken to protect him physically, such demonstrations might tarnish the glowing image of a man renowned and revered throughout the world.

If he does not go, however, he very definitely would risk a "loss of face" for ducking an unpleasant meeting with a political minority of the opposite camp. In the Oriental mind, this could create a more severe setback for Mr. Eisenhower's prestige and that of the United States than the nullity he might face by going to Japan.

Good Cage Schedule

If the Salem High School basketball schedule for 1960-61 is any indication, the Salem Quakers are in the Big League.

The schedule, as announced yesterday by Athletic Director Fred Cope, includes such top Ohio high schools as Dayton Roosevelt, the Ohio Class AA champions, Toledo Scott, Columbus East and Akron Central. All in all, there will be 18 games during the regular season, 14 of them on the home court. The schedule will be tough but that's the way Coach John Cabas wants it. It could lead to another trip to the state finals for the sharp-shooting Quakers.

Once Over

This summer will see flabbergasting traffic congestion on water. Careless driving on the seas and rivers may be almost as bad as on dry land.

Believe it or not, we now have marine hit-and-run drivers. The Coast Guard has tightened old regulations and legislatures of some states have passed new laws to handle the rapidly growing menace of new boat owners who think the first rule of sea is "Step on the gas."

Not many years ago people on the water were relatively few and they knew the rules. Today boat owners have to wait in line to get from parking lot to dock.

A yachting cap once meant competence. Today it can mean "Gangway for a salt water idiot and public menace."

Safest thing to do if you see guy in yachting costume today is to assume he needs more room than a runaway Polaris sub. Rivers, bays and harbors are full of boat owners, largely juveniles, who are never sure the rudder is working and think channel buoys are for seagulls only.

Yacht clubs are enlarging, marinas are springing up by dozens and a weekend in a harbor looks like a seagoing demonstration of dancing cheek to cheek.

Once you could get clear signals indicating what a skipper might do next. Today the code reads:

One toot: Owner is navigating by whim.
Two toots: Owner is changing whims in midstream.
One long toot, three short toots: Owner requires a seagoing psychiatrist.
Four long toots: Am about to loop-the-loop as an encore.
Yacht pennants have changed, too. Keep this guide on you at all times when off dry-land:
Red flag with yellow ball in center: This boat is on its own.
White flag with green circle: If you don't like the way owner is operating this ship see your lawyer.
Green flag with white dots: Whatever happens excuse it, please.

IN ACTORS STRIKE, a performer comes out of work through his own closing notice and gets a kick out of thinking "What ever happens no critic can dismiss my performance offstage as merely adequate. Actors always have advantage over producers for a long pull battle, since they are more used to being hungry."

Jim Piersall, of Cleveland Indians, was fined $250 for throwing a sand bucket, three gloves and several helmets onto field in protesting an umpire's decision. Was it for improper conduct or because he didn't get any of the missiles over the plate?

"What I Do With Public Money Is Private"

Johnson's Big Play

By JAY G. HAYDEN

In his first few days of undisguised campaigning, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas may or may not have advanced his prospect of bagging the Democratic nomination.

But there is no mistaking that his stand on the U2 affair, sharply at variance to all of his Democratic rivals—Kennedy, Stevenson and Symington—will influence events greatly both in Congress and in the party conventions over the next few weeks.

In his first speech, at Idaho Falls, Sen. Johnson squarely backed up President Eisenhower and urged all Americans to do the same, saying: "Until January 1961 he is the sole spokesman of our country when it deals with other nations."

The Texas senator said: "Khrushchev's objective is to divide our country and destroy the prestige of the President, and by God I'm not going to do his job for him. . . . I don't think the President should apologize to Khrushchev; it would be more appropriate if Khrushchev apologized to the President."

From the moment Khrushchev

"I want our party to win the next election. . . . but with equal fervor I want our President to be successful in his dealing with foreign nations. If we get into trouble it will not be our President who is in a jam—it will be our nation that is in jeopardy."

While he named no one of his Democratic rivals, Sen. Johnson's repetition in every speech of the assertion that the President should not apologize to Khrushchev, clearly was aimed at Sen. John F. Kennedy's statement that if he had been in President Eisenhower's shoes he would have sent "regrets" to the Soviet Premier.

WITHOUT quite saying so, Sen. Johnson conveyed the thought that election of Kennedy to the presidency would amount to sending a boy to do a man's job.

The one time he named Kennedy directly, Sen. Johnson described him as, "A fine, attractive young man." A moment later, however, the Texas senator said the prime need was a president "experienced, courageous and able to get things done."

From the moment Khrushchev

broke up the Paris meeting, Sen. Johnson backed the President to the hilt and warned against any attempt to play politics with the U2 affair. His advice no doubt influenced the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations in its decision to conduct a limited and largely secret inquiry, to which both the Republican committee membership and President Eisenhower fully agreed.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, spoke strongly against injection of the U.S.-Russian development into the presidential campaign.

One of the "terrible things" that might happen, Fulbright said, on a television broadcast, would be an election controversy including "soft on Communism" charges from both sides.

In such an event, he said, both parties might find themselves in "frozen position" regarding the Soviet Union that would hamper U.S.-Russian negotiations of all sorts.

Besides his strong hold on all Senate processes for the remainder of the session, Sen. Johnson may be in a position, more so than any other candidate, to influence the Democratic national platform.

Treasury's Schemes

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Interest rates are falling. But the U. S. Treasury is still struggling with the seemingly endless task of handling the huge federal debt on terms that the investing public will take.

It's trying new schemes from time to time.

Huge chunks of the federal debt floated back in the days of 2½ per cent interest keep coming due. The Treasury hasn't the cash to redeem them and retire them. It must raise new money to meet them—and pay a lot more for it than 2½ per cent.

And it must do this without upsetting the other investment channels—that is, the markets for corporate, state and local bonds, for short-term business and consumer borrowings, and for home mortgages.

Also it can't float a bond paying more than 4½ per cent that runs longer than five years. The law won't let it pay more, and even with weakening interest rates investors aren't yet buying long-term bonds at that rate.

The Treasury's latest gimmick is borrowed from Canada. This is to offer holders of some 11 billion dollars in 2½ per cent bonds maturing in November 1961 around 5½ billion dollars worth of new notes and bonds paying 3½ to 3¾ per cent, depending on maturity dates.

This may look like a windfall for such holders. They will get the higher interest between now and the time the old bonds come due.

But that isn't the Treasury's purpose. It wants to extend the payment date, because of the crush of bonds and other securities coming due next year, and thus free it of some of next year's refunding task. The higher interest offer might work.

Canada tried out such a plan and lengthened maturity dates with notable success.

The U. S. Treasury had its big success when it offered individuals bonds paying 5 per cent for less than five years. But it figures it can do better now.

The Treasury also is plagued by the excess of redemptions of savings bonds over new sales. It has raised the interest rates on these bonds, with some but less than full success. It would like to free more if these bonds held by the public—and not redeemed—because they are less inflationary than the Treasury securities, especially the short-term ones, that can be marketed.

Sales of Series E and H savings bonds rose in May to 349 million dollars, 11 million better than the year before. Redemptions dropped to 412 million from 433 million a year ago—but the Treasury drain was still there, if smaller.

The Treasury tried to put out some new 4½ per cent bonds at the legal limit in March but could sell only 370 million dollars of them. It had offered more than a billion dollars of them and hoped to place at least 500 million worth. The public still preferred other forms of investment that returned higher yields.

Its latest offering is for 3½ per cent notes maturing in four years and 3¾ per cent bonds maturing in eight years.

AS IT NOW APPEARS, Johnson will have the majority support required to commit at least a dozen South and near-South states to unanimous support of his candidacy by application of the unit rule.

Each of these states presumably will name to the resolutions committee persons friendly to Johnson's viewpoints.

In addition, he has many close senatorial supporters from the West and North, such as Mike Mansfield of Montana, Alan Bible of Nevada, and J. Allen Frear of Delaware.

It is doubtful that Sen. Johnson is harboring any great hope for the presidential nomination this year. But nobody who knows him doubts that he sees this race as an opportunity to strengthen his already high standing as a near dictator of Democratic party policies.

Communist Victories

by DAVID LAWRENCE

Crackdown Needed on Reds In Western Nations

The Communists are winning victory after victory, while the West seems to be retreating.

The Communists have forced a crisis in Japan and are intent on preventing President Eisenhower from visiting there. Success in keeping Mr. Eisenhower from going to Tokyo will be followed by intensified efforts also to keep him out of the Philippines and Korea.

Thus, the propaganda battle to hurt the standing of the United States in the Far East goes on even as the Communists have virtually seized control of the government of Cuba—right at the doorstep of the United States.

The invasion of Cuba is the first step toward further take overs in Latin America.

Without firing a shot, the Communists are making headway in countries hitherto regarded as the military frontiers of the West.

Already in America there are suggestions that President Eisenhower had better not go to the Far East.

This is exactly what the Communists want to see happen.

An American President, officially invited to visit Allied countries, would then appear, in effect, to be forbidden by Communist activity from carrying out his mission. The adverse effect of such a happening would, from a propaganda standpoint, be a serious blow to American prestige throughout the world.

MUCH OF THIS decline has happened within the last two months. Korea has become weaker. Turkey has had a serious internal upset.

Japan is torn by strife, with the Communists demonstrating openly against the government because it signed a security treaty permitting the United States to have a base there to fight Communist aggression.

All this has a military significance. Thus, by suspending U2 flights, the United States has lost an important auxiliary activity.

Not only can weather information no longer be obtained by flying at high altitudes over the Soviet Union but also a vital means of detecting preparations for a surprise attack has been subtracted.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has been meddling in the operation of foreign policy, which is not its constitutional function.

Some curious statements, moreover, have been made by some of its members about the U2 episode.

One of the most fantastic is the suggestion that the high officials of our government should have publicly lied throughout on the U2 flights or should have said nothing at all.

But the same members of Congress who offer this hindsight would have been the first to demand testimony from high officials as to what exactly did happen.

If the high officials didn't tell the truth to the committee, they would have been guilty of perjury.

IF THEY REFUSED to discuss it at all, the facts would have been obtained by the committee from lesser officials and the press would have been printing it day after day until confirmation had been obtained.

Under the circumstances, the administration had no choice but to tell the truth about the affair as soon as it became definitely established that Francis Powers had been captured and was alive. For it was immediately recognized that he would have been pressured into revealing enough facts to convict the American government of telling untruths if it had decided to pursue a policy of evasion.

So long as congressional committees and their chairmen insist on the right of public inquiry and the politicians urge such a course, no administration can afford to suppress the essential facts about any controversy, no matter how delicate a situation may be created in international relations.

A showdown seems to be approaching.

How long can the United States continue to appear in retreat? How long can U2 flights be suspended while the Soviets carry on espionage and an infiltration that weakens America's military position against the Communists?

A TEST may come in Cuba. Nikita Khrushchev is going there soon.

If President Eisenhower is kept from visiting Japan, then the Soviet Premier should be discouraged from visiting Cuba. There are plenty of Cuban citizens who can do the "discouraging" if they are sure the American government has a policy looking in that direction.

But even broader measures are necessary. A crackdown on Communists in every Western country would seem to be needed.

This can be brought about more readily if diplomatic relations between the United States and the gangster regime in Moscow are cut off.

This would stop the influx of Communist agents into the United States and it would be a signal to Latin American countries to take similar measures.

If the West seems to the rest of the world to be showing the white feather while the Soviets are infiltrating or invading the countries allied to the West, it is only a question of time when America's military position will be correspondingly weakened and the United States will have to spend many more billions for a "Fortress America" policy of unwanted isolation.

Steel Dilemma

By HOBART ROWEN

In the midst of a generally prosperous economy, the steel industry is having a recession all its own.

Production this week is down to 67 per cent of capacity and, according to the best industry sources, it may slump to 50 per cent before picking up in late autumn.

Yet, the first faint talk of a December price increase has come rumbling out of Pittsburgh and the instinctive reaction in Washington is: "Say it isn't so!"

Back at the time that Vice President Nixon and Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell settled the steel strike, some cynics assumed there had been a secret "deal" which contemplated a price increase at the end of 1960.

All the parties to the negotiations protested that there had been no such deal. But the peace treaty that was signed last January scheduled the first of two 7-cent-an-hour wage hikes for December, 1960.

That's just a month after the presidential election.

IN NEW YORK a few days ago, R. L. Gray, Armco Steel chairman, voiced the opinion of many industry executives when he said: "I don't see how we can avoid a price increase" at the end of the year.

The fact is that the industry's costs have already been boosted by its new labor contract. Fringe benefits provided by the contract cost the companies just about as much as the upcoming 7-cent hourly rate boost.

Yet, there has been no thought of raising prices now. Why? Arthur B. Homer, president of Bethlehem Steel, gave the answer at a meeting of company executives: "Market conditions are unfavorable for any price change now. We will have to wait until the end of the year and see what the situation is then."

Administration officials think Homer tagged the real key to the situation: The steel industry may find it prudent to hold the line, despite its higher labor costs, for the simple reason that it is meeting tough competition.

It used to be easy for the steel industry. The metal was cheap and there was little danger of losing customers by passing along the full measure of wage increases.

Today, the situation is different.

Aluminum is making impressive inroads in many markets that steel formerly claimed as its own. The aluminum automobile engine, to take one example, is no longer a curiosity and is coming into wider use.

Plastics and concrete are being substituted in some industrial and commercial fields.

NOR CAN IMPORTS of foreign steel be ignored. As much as four million tons may come into the United States this year. Percentage-wise, that's just a fraction of U.S. output of more than 115 million tons. But it hurts, especially now when auto manufacturers still have plenty of foreign steel on hand and on order.

By the fourth quarter, things should be tuning up. But whether the improvement will be enough to justify a price increase remains to be seen.

If a Democratic administration is elected in November, the steel industry may wonder whether it will feel even more pressure than it did from Vice President Nixon to reach accommodations with labor.

Another intangible in the situation is public reaction. A price increase in the face of sluggish demand might not only encourage a new Kefauver investigation but probably would be unpopular with the larger business community.

A new boom is needed to make everything come out all right.

The Doctor Says

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN, M.D.

Pain Killers Often Veil Real Ailment

It's usually a bad idea to take or prescribe a pain killer until you have discovered the cause of the pain.

Dr. H. T. Hyman

Suppose your youngster has a bellyache. It is always a temptation to ease his distress as quickly as possible. You reach for paregoric or a codeine tablet left over from a previous illness.

This may mask the signs of an acute appendicitis from your doctor and cost the child his best chance for recovery.

Similarly overdosing with nitroglycerin for a supposed angina may seriously complicate an attack of coronary thrombosis.

Sometimes, too, spontaneous relief of pain is deceptive. If it is accompanied by evidences of well-being, such as is experienced when a stone is passed or an obstruction removed, celebrations are in order.

BUT IF IT'S associated with a worsening of a patient's condition, such as happens when the signal

Troop 28

Senior Explorer Troop 28 enjoyed a covered dinner recently at the First Christian Church with the parents of the troop members and the Rev. Harold Deitch as guests.

The committee in charge was comprised of troop committee chairman, Mrs. John Weber. Mrs. James Sample and Mrs. Raymond Hiltbrand. Rev. Deitch gave the invocation.

A farewell graduation ceremony was held in honor of the troop members and leaders. The committee in charge of the program included Wanda Hayes, Judy Schuller, Nancy Talbott, Dianne Tomkinson, Sally Shears and Barbara Bricker.

President Nancy Talbott welcomed the guests, and treasurer Cecilia Oertel reported on troop finance. The farewell, "Thank You" was given by vice president, Barbara Jeffries. The itinerary for New York tour was explained by the secretary, Diane Fleischer.

"It Could Be You" was the program theme, bringing out the troop comedy highlights. It was "emceed" by Wanda Hayes, assisted by Sally Shears.

Mrs. John Weber, troop committee chairman, was presented a Girl Scout statuette by her daughter, Donna, in behalf of all the troop members and leaders for outstanding service to the troop. Mrs. Weber has been associated with Troop 28 since it was formed. She first served as an assistant leader and then troop committee chairman.

Each mother received a corsage from her daughter as a token of appreciation for troop work, and the troop members presented gifts to leaders, Mrs. Aubrey Hayes and Mrs. William Schuller.

boxes of an internal organ are destroyed by a spreading infection, it's bad news indeed.

Despite his desire to diagnose first and treat later, your doctor may be forced to work backward and try to find out what's wrong by observing the effects of treatment.

If you pain can be relieved by application of an electric heating pad or an ice bag, by a freezing mist from an ethyl chloride spray, by an injection of a "trigger point" with local anesthetic or by a few aspirin tablets, he'll feel pretty confident that your troubles are minor.

And if your pain is relieved by what's called a "specif" drug, like an antirheumatic or an anti-gout preparation if you've a red and swollen joint or, again, an antispasmodic if you're suffering from simple colicky wobbles, he's won the daily double by picking both the winning diagnosis and the winning remedy.

UNFORTUNATELY for patient and physician, winning the daily double is the exception rather than the rule.

However, fortunately for all concerned, there are innumerable methods and means to relieve pain.

When the previously mentioned simpler remedies fail of their purpose, it may be necessary to give an injection of morphine or a morphine-like drug, administer a whiff of a general anesthetic like "laughing gas" or even chloroform, pull an infected tooth, release the pus from a boil, free a stone that's gotten stuck in a biliary or urinary passage, remove a slipped disk or a fragment of bone or a tumor that's pressing on a nerve cable, or destroy a rolled up nerve end that's been producing agonizing distress in the "phantom limb" of an amputee no longer possesses.

BUT WHATEVER the pain and wherever it's located, it's you, the patient, who must provide the physician with a word picture of its characteristics and associations. Without your verbal assistance, your doctor would be as helpless as if he were a veterinary and you, a dumb animal.

And without your estimate of the effects of treatment, he'd be as confused as you'd be if the phone company installed a telephone but failed to provide you with a directory.

Biggest Ohio Boys State Opens at OU

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—The 23rd annual Buckeye Boys State, the American Legion school in self-government, opens on Ohio University's campus today with an expected record enrollment of 1,100.

Selected juniors in high schools throughout the state register in the afternoon, being assigned to rooms in five dormitories designated as "counties" in the mythical "51st state". Tonight the boys will begin their orientation into ways of active citizenship.

Because of the big registration, a fifth county was added this year, named for William S. Konold of Columbus, one of the founders of the program in 1936. Each county includes four to six cities, for a total of 23.

On Friday, the boys begin holding caucuses and conventions. Hundreds will campaign for offices and judgeships before the polls open at 9:30 a.m. Sunday for the election. Successful candidates will be inaugurated Sunday night, and from Monday through Friday, June 17, the boys will run their own affairs. The state ends about noon Saturday, June 18.

A legion commission headed by Robert Minshall of Washington Court House is in charge of the Boys State. Most physical arrangements are in charge of W. L. (Pete) DeWeese, legion headquarters staffer from Columbus who is dean and also will organize and conduct a band of at least 125 pieces.

Top representation from any one county will be Trumbull's. Its 15 legion posts are sponsoring a total of 72 boys.

Kennedy-Stevenson Pact Is Reported

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Tribune said today Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Adlai E. Stevenson reportedly have agreed to combine forces for the presidential nomination.

Stevenson denied such an agreement was made.

The Tribune said the reported agreement includes these points:

"1. Stevenson is to strive to keep his name out of the Los Angeles nominating convention July 11 for the first three ballots while Kennedy made his do-or-die effort."

"2. If Kennedy's all-out drive fails he is to throw whatever forces he can behind Stevenson for the presidential nomination."

"3. Kennedy would accept the vice presidential nomination if Stevenson gets the top spot for the third time."

Stevenson issued a statement that, "there was no discussion (with Kennedy) of our course of action either before or during the convention."

Mayor Richard Daley, who will lead the Illinois convention delegation, said he had not heard of such a deal.

The Tribune said the reported deal supposedly was made May 21 when Kennedy visited Stevenson in his Libertyville home or less than two hours.

The film was the controversial French motion picture, "The Lovers." Jacobellis' attorney, Bennett Kleinman, said the case would be appealed to the U.S. Supreme Court "if necessary."

Another of Wolf's nieces called the deputies and said she also had been barred from the house by Wolf's niece. Miss Brown later, Miss Delight Brown, 63, who lived

Film Legend

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Wilder, who has made a name for himself in Hollywood as a different from most Hollywood producers. He is smart enough to make up his own wisecracks. Commenting on the reported rift between him and Marilyn Monroe, he remarked: "She doesn't need acting lessons. She's a fine actress already. What she needs is to go to college where they give courses in advanced punctuality."

"I hate people who aren't on time. I come from a long line of railroad engineers," he said.

But Wilder, who helped bring Miss Monroe's career to a peak in "Some Like It Hot," is sure the two will work together again when they find the right script. Billy is rapidly becoming a film legend as a writer, director and producer. He has been nominated for 18 Academy awards, actually won three Oscars.

"I was robbed 15 times," he smiled.

Wilder, an ex-Austrian newspaperman, has had a hand in scores of pictures.

Billy, who looks like a near-sighted bantam rooster with a convict hair cut, is driven by a fury of creative genius that is rescued from obsession by a saving sense of wry humor. He is one of the most popular figures in the industry—and one of the most respected.

He paces like a hungry leopard while he works, smokes four packs of cigarettes a day.

"It's not good for me perhaps," he sighed, then added: "But I have a theory about it. I feel that if I gave up smoking and five or six years later was hit by a car, and lay dying in a gutter, I'd hate myself for having lost so much joy in my last years."

Billy, ebullient by nature, is optimistic about Hollywood's future.

"We're merely separating the men from the boys, and the men will survive to make fewer but better pictures," he said. "What the industry really needs is more serious film fans. It's up to them."

Named Prom Queen

Miss Patricia Less

Miss Patricia Less, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Less of RD 5, Salem, has been named Queen of the annual Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the Junior Class at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Youngstown. The Prom is scheduled for Friday at the Mahoning Country Club.

Miss Less will have a court of three attendants, two from Youngstown and the other from Warren.

If they support good pictures, then the industry will invest the money to make them."

"One cruel thing about turning out a bad movie," he observed, "is that it goes on forever. A bad play folds and is forgotten, but in pictures we don't bury our dead."

"A bad picture goes on being shown in country after country, stinking up the whole world. It's cruel."

"Finally, when you think it is out of your system, your daughter sees it on television, and says, 'My father is an idiot. How could he have done such a thing?'"

Ohio Unemployed Total Continues to Drop

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The number of Ohioans out of work for a week or more is continuing to drop. But the total still is twice as high as last year at this time.

The Bureau of Unemployment compensation's preliminary figures for the week ending June 4 show 88,470 claimants unemployed a week or more. That figure compares with an average of 43,670 in June 1959, but represents a considerable come-down from 118,000 figure noted at the end of March.

New compensation claims, which had dropped off slightly toward the end of May, climbed again in the week ending June 4 and totaled 14,290.

Whites Fearful as Freedom Day Nears for Belgian Congo

By SAUL PETT
LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo (AP)—As a colony, the big rich Belgian Congo is dying in a convulsion of fear, rumor and confusion.

One nightmare haunts the white community.

They think that many of the most primitive natives expect to take over the white mans world completely and literally on Independence Day, June 30. Take over, not only his government, but also his home, his car, even his wife.

There have been incidents but for every actual incident, 100 are imagined. True, false or medium, the result is the same in this country, where black men outnumber whites 130-1. The Belgians are scared.

They have been flying out by the thousands. Airlines are jammed. In rural areas, many plantation owners, copper mining officials, missionaries and trading post managers are planning to send their wives and children to town for protection.

In the cities, many white homes now have guns. Business is dead. Few consumers and retailers are buying more than they absolutely need.

The white community (nominally about 100,000 compared to 13 million Africans) waits tensely and the rumors multiply. Is there any substance to the reports? Apparently there is, according to missionaries, Belgian officials and people I talked with at the American and British consulates.

While there has been much semi-hysterical exaggeration, they said, this kind of thing has occurred:

African men (no one can say how many) have approached white women and said, in effect, they were taking title to them after June 30.

Natives in a northern village have laid out many empty boxes, crates, tubs at a cemetery, thinking that with independence they will be filled with the white man's clothes, food, goods. Somehow, they associate the dead with the coming miracle.

A man coming out of a barber shop in Leopoldville saw several natives eyeing his car possessively. Why? "It will be ours after June 30. Said the owner: "I suppose you think you'll get my house too? Said the natives: "oh yes sir."

There are many rumors of African blacks: After June 30, the bad whites will have to go, only the good ones can remain.

Trying to nail this last type of rumor down is like trying to nail gelatine to the wall. But true or not, many Belgians now treat their houseboys more carefully.

Many people don't know what to believe. This much is fact. Some of the lesser African politicians, or jungle precinct captains, have led their primitive constituents to believe they will take over the white man's possessions June 30. The top African leaders have tried to spike these notions, but it's doubtful if the speeches can catch up with the rumors among wishful thinking natives in the remote villages unreached by radio or newspapers.

This uncertainty is the harvest of haste as the Congo, one third the size of the United States, races toward freedom from Belgium.

COURT REPORT FILED

Sawdust and Logs

Wedding Background

SYMSONIA, Ky. (AP) — The toot of the noon whistle, the smell of sawdust and an alcove made of logs and slabs of wood substituted for the wedding march, orange blossoms and a church at the wedding of Joe Carey and Anna Joyce Tolson.

Carey, who works at a Graves County sawmill, wanted his fellow workers to be at the wedding, so it was held during the noon break at the mill in an alcove Carey's fellow workers built.

WELL, THAT'S ENOUGH
LOS ANGELES (AP) — "They told me to appear and bring all my documents I didn't have any documents so I just brought me." Beverly Hills, a Sunset Strip night club stripper, made the statement Wednesday when she flew here from San Francisco to testify before a federal grand jury probing underworld figure Mickey Cohen's financial affairs. Testimony is secret.

Tax Extension Fight Looms

House Bill Also Asks Hike In Debt Ceiling

WASHINGTON (AP) — A routing Senate tax fight appeared in prospect today over a bill to extend for another year levies which bring in four billion dollars of annual revenue.

The measure, passed by the House Wednesday, also provides an eight billion dollar temporary increase in the national debt ceiling for the year ahead. This year's temporary 10 billion dollar increase expires June 30.

Several senators have announced plans to try to use the House bill as a vehicle for major tax changes, both to cut some revenues and also to pick up some.

Chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) said his finance committee would meet soon on the legislation, but no date has been fixed. He plans to try to get the bill acted on there without public hearings.

Byrd is expected to seek to get the bill through without change, in line with Eisenhower's recommendations. But several other committee members are ready with amendments.

Under Senate rules, the bill will be wide open to amendment. The House considered the measure Wednesday under a rule barring any floor changes, but the members nevertheless showed considerable dissatisfaction with it by their votes.

The House agreed only by a 202-181 tally even to take up the bill, and passed it 222-174.

Many legislators said their "no" votes reflected a feeling that Congress this year should remove the 10 per cent federal tax on local telephone service and cut in half the 10 per cent passenger tax affecting train, bus and plane riders.

The Senate last year voted to kill both of these levies effective immediately. But in conference with the House, it was decided the effective date for wiping out the telephone tax would be made July 1, 1960, and the passenger levy would be reduced to 5 per cent also effective July 1 this year.

However, President Eisenhower asked this session for another year's extension of both levies at current rates, and the bill before the House Wednesday reflected his views.

Rockefeller

The governor never mentioned Nixon by name. But he took direct aim at one of the vice president's major campaign topics — his role in settling the 1959 steel strike. Rockefeller termed the settlement a surrender to the forces of inflation.

Urges New Approaches

In urging new approaches to foreign policy, Rockefeller said: "Our position in the world is dramatically weaker today than 15 years ago."

One month before the Geneva Disarmament Conference, Rockefeller declared, the United States had no prepared position. "The machinery of free government can and must be geared to do better than this," he added.

Opinions differed widely among Republicans as to the eventual effect on Rockefeller's political future.

But Thurston B. Morton, Republican national chairman, said, while he had not read the governor's statement, he would not object to a contest for the GOP nomination. "If there is one," Morton said, "I'll see to it that the convention is run as fairly as possible."

Neglected, Abandoned Youngsters Aided By Children's Bureau

Prompted by Theodore Roosevelt, Congress established the Children's Bureau in 1912 for the "betterment of the conditions of children." The Bureau had a three-fold program: (1) get the facts; (2) inform the public; (3) make sure that personal help was available to every needy child.

Today, five decades later, that program is unchanged, and millions of abandoned, neglected and handicapped children have benefited from it.

For a revealing glimpse of the tremendous good accomplished daily by this self-effacing Government bureau, read the informative article, "How Uncle Sam is Helping Children in Trouble." You'll find it in Family Weekly distributed with your Saturday edition of THE SALEM NEWS.

The same issue of Family Weekly features two fascinating articles: the concluding installment of "The Many Worlds of Bill Holden" and "A Queen on Water Skis," the story of pretty 22-year-old Nancie Rideout, Women's World Water-Ski Champion.

Regular Family Weekly features include some simple summer recipes for convenient and elegant dining, riddles and games for the youngsters in the Junior Treasure Chest, and the jokes and cartoons of Quips and Quotes.

RED SHIP ON CRUISE

Polio Vaccine Results Good In Epidemic

WASHINGTON (AP)—Live-virus polio vaccine showed good results during a Nicaraguan epidemic, it was reported here today.

A group of Soviet researchers also was on record favoring the American-made vaccine, along with criticism of the Salk killed-virus vaccine.

But the head of the Public Health Service said there still is not enough proof of the safety and effectiveness of the live-virus vaccine to license it for general use in the United States.

Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney said in an interview "I would love to be able in good conscience to license our live vaccine now as I feel it would be a boon to other nations, but I cannot."

"I couldn't clear the live-virus vaccine now because I do not feel there is proof of its complete safety and of its effectiveness, especially over long periods of time," he said.

The more favorable report on the live-virus type which is given orally came from Dr. Juan Jose Alcocer of the Pan American Health Organization. In a report prepared for the second international conference on live-virus polio vaccines, he said the live type had met with success in what he called its first evaluable challenge of a full-scale polio epidemic.

Dr. Alcocer said 49,585 children in Managua were given the oral vaccine after a 1958 epidemic. A new outbreak of polio in the city began late last year and carried over into 1960. The attack rate among the vaccinated was only one-fifth as great as among the nonvaccinated, he reported.

228 Children Under Care of County Office

LISBON — Columbiana County gained 10 welfare children during May according to Robert Bycroft, county welfare director.

Beginning May 1, the department had 218 children under its care. They received 28 more during the month but released 18.

On June 1 they had 228 children on the rolls. 149 in boarding homes, 25 in adopted homes, 38 were with their parents or relatives, four are in wage homes and 12 in juvenile home. Five are also in institutions.

50 Attend Meeting of County Beekeepers

LISBON — Fifty persons attended the first of three summer twilight meetings of the Columbiana County Beekeepers Assn. at the home of Richard Howenstone of Alliance RD 5 Wednesday night.

C. A. Reese, extension apiarist, discussed problems of beekeeping, and Charles Lewis, vice president of the State Beekeepers Assn, gave details of the state meeting to be held in Salem July 30-31.

Eldon Kerr of Homeworth, vice president of the county organization, presided at last night's meeting. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, July 13, at the home of Earl Hamilton of Lisbon RD 1.

Eichmann

Argentina would go so far as to break off diplomatic relations with Israel, at least for the time being.

Argentina also demanded punishment of the band of Jewish "volunteers" the Israeli government said had tracked Eichmann down after a 15-year manhunt and spirited him to Israel.

An Argentine protest to Israel had been expected, but its terms were considerably stronger than had been anticipated. However, there appeared no possibility that Israel would comply with the demand for Eichmann's return or for punishment of those who captured him.

Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion already has taken an adamant stand against suggestion that Eichmann be tried by an international court instead of by an Israeli tribunal. Ben-Gurion also has praised the "unbounded devotion" of the agents who captured him.

Hargrove

liberating about five hours. Said the jury foreman, Richard Mericle:

"We didn't rule out the possibility that he could have done it, but the state didn't prove its case. None of us were convinced beyond a reasonable doubt that he was guilty."

"We had to believe Hargrove's story because there was no proof that he was not telling the truth. It's still possible that Clark was accidentally shot by some kid trying out a rifle."

Hargrove testified that he confessed—on two separate occasions—to prevent his interrogators from publicizing aspects of his intimate relations with Mrs. Clark.

At one point in his testimony he said "I would have confessed to the Chicago fire" to shut off further questioning by authorities.

Hargrove said that after he meets to talk with Mrs. Clark, he plans to go to his mother's home in Toledo for a rest. His immediate plans also include visiting his five children who live with his former wife, Beverly, in nearby Euclid. They were divorced two years ago.

McGahan Elected by E. Palestine Boosters

EAST PALESTINE — Harry McGahan of Unity Road was elected new president of the East Palestine Booster Club last night, succeeding Kenneth D. Hunston.

Other officers elected at the meeting include James Massey, vice president; William Herriott, secretary; and C. Z. Atkinson, treasurer. Gale Beatrice was named a new trustee.

After the meeting, the club was taken on an inspection tour of the football equipment room by Head Coach Howard Weyers.

Deaths and Funerals

Virgil Stratton

Mr. and Mrs. Plummer Diehl of N. Lincoln Ave. have received word of the death of their brother-in-law, Virgil Stratton, 53, of Beaver Falls, Pa., who died Tuesday night.

Survivors include his wife, the former Ellen Wight of Salem. Funeral service will be Friday at 2 p.m. at the Lutton Funeral Home, 5th Ave., Beaver Falls. Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 tonight.

Judge

Lunch, which is operated by another man.

Julius Frankel, 62, of Massillon, pleaded guilty to a similar indictment and was fined $100 and costs.

Frankel and Ellis were among 13 persons indicted on charges of knowingly permitting gambling on their premises by a special grand jury impeached by the state last January to investigate vice and gambling in Stark County.

One indictment has never been served on a woman who lives out of the state; two were abandoned by the state when it was learned the accused persons did not own the properties involved and four other persons have pleaded guilty and have been fined a total of $300 and costs.

Meanwhile, state authorities in Columbus said they would seek an additional $15,000 to continue their investigation. They said the extra funds were needed because they have not completed investigations in other sections of the county.

If approved, the $15,000 will bring to $90,000 the amount of state money granted since the probe was started. The state's Emergency Board of Control must act on the request for more funds before July 1, which is the start of the new fiscal year.

Deerfield

The Sirenettes met Monday evening at the fire station for the monthly meeting with 8 members in attendance.

Plans were made for the carnival coming up soon. A prize was won by Mrs. Minnie Balogh. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Flory and Mrs. Genell Johnston.

Next meeting will be held June 30 at the home of Mrs. Minnie Balogh. The county meeting will be held June 14 at Edinburg.

Candidates Warned On Filing Expenses

Candidates who won nomination in the May 3 primaries were warned today by the County Election Board they cannot qualify for a place on the ballot for the November general election unless they file the required sworn statements on their campaign expenditures in connection with the primaries.

Law forbids issuance of a certificate of nomination to persons who do not file the reports by the deadline Friday, June 17, at 4 p.m. according to Frank R. O'Hanlon, election board clerk. In addition, any office-seeker — whether or not he was successful — will be barred from being a candidate again for five years if he fails to file the report, O'Hanlon pointed out.

Several nominees — both Republicans and Democrats — are included in the group which has not filed the reports, although the deadline is a little over a week away, O'Hanlon commented.

Democratic Women Plan Picnic, Benefit

LISBON — Mrs. Kay Blackburn of Columbiana reported on her trip to the national Democratic Women's Club, last month, at the regular meeting Wednesday evening of the Lisbon Central Democratic Women's Club at St. George's parish hall. There were 15 members present.

A family picnic and a benefit were discussed. Mrs. Mary Mellon of Lisbon RD 3, president, presided. The next meeting will be July 13 at the same location.

Pinball Device Demonstrated In Bribe Trial

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio (AP) — A pinball demonstration was given in Tuscarawas County Common Pleas Court Wednesday at the bribery trial of George Markos.

The demonstration, permitted over objections of defense attorneys, was conducted in an attempt by the state to show that the machine was a gambling device.

Attorneys for Markos objected to the machine being demonstrated and described before being introduced or accepted as evidence.

Markos, owner of the Dover Novelty Co., is one of five persons indicted on seven counts of offering bribes to Dover Mayor Clifford C. Froelich. The mayor was indicted on a charge of accepting bribes. Robert S. Blackburn, investigator for the state attorney general, demonstrated the pinball machine, one of 31 taken in a raid at the Dover Novelty Co. last Feb. 10.

Blackburn, a former Internal Revenue Service agent, said he had often inspected coin-operated devices for the federal government to determine whether they were machines for amusement or gambling. He had not given his opinion on the machine he was demonstrating when court was recessed for the day.

Following cross-examination of Calvin Domer, Dover Council clerk, concerning ordinances of that city, defense attorney Doren L. Renner noted that:

"The city legalized these machines by issuing licenses. The mayor issued the licenses. If they were gambling devices the mayor had the power to revoke the licenses."

The machine in the courtroom had no license affixed to it.

STRIKE DEADLINE SET

CLEVELAND (AP) — Alfred Granakis, president of Local 1250, United Automobile Workers, said Wednesday the local has received sanction from the UAW international union to call a strike at Ford Motor Co.'s foundry and two engine plants in suburban Brook Park over grievances. He said Monday midnight has been set as the deadline for settlement of the grievances or a strike by 8,500 UAW members at the plants. A meeting between union and company representatives is scheduled Friday.

failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Injured in a one-car accident investigated by the Canfield Patrol Post was Clyde Moore, 27, of Wellsville. Patrolmen said he was driving south of Rt. 45 about three miles north of Edinburg when his car left the east side of the road, recrossed the road and left the west side. He was treated at the Westside Hospital for cuts of the forehead and cited by patrolmen for reckless operation.

Frances Gray, 49, of RD 2, Minerva, was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance at 1:30 p.m. after her car hit a second car driven by Donald McLean, 70, of North Canton, in the rear on Rt. 30 two and one-half miles east of Minerva. Patrolmen said McLean slowed down for a railroad crossing when the collision occurred.

The company countered with lawsuits, suspensions and cancellation of several union-benefitting clauses in the expired contract.

A threat of new walkouts in the troubled aviation-missile industry looms. The IAM said it broke off

Last of 'Terrible' Touhy Brothers Dead

CHICAGO (AP)—The last of "The Terrible" Touhy brothers is dead.

Thomas (Terrible Tommy) Touhy succumbed to cancer without realizing his hope to avenge the death of his brother—Roger "The Terrible" who was gunned down by assassins Dec. 16.

The Sun-Time disclosed his death today. The paper says he died May 16 at the home of relatives.

Tommy had been quoted as saying in the past:

"I don't want to end up full of bullet holes in the street. I want to die in bed with my family around me."

He died in bed but there were no brothers around him.

Roger was shot to death 23 days after leaving prison.

Two other brothers were killed during the Capone era gang wars. Another died in prison of tuberculosis. James, who ran a roadhouse, died of natural causes.

Tommy, released from prison in 1947 after serving 11 years for a $78,000 mail robbery, had said that "Rog got the blame for a lot of things I did. He even got my nickname, 'The Terrible,' pinned on him. He didn't deserve it. He was just a bootlegger."

Tribe Takes League Lead With 2 Victories Over Red Sox

Orioles Tripped 2-0 by Tigers

Yanks Jar Chisox, Senators Jolt A's

By The Associated Press Cleveland has barged past Baltimore into the American League lead, and Woody Held, the low-average belter, has been the Indians' hatchman.

The power-packed shortstop, batting .257 and benched in an off-15 slump 10 days ago, drove in six runs and brought home the clincher in both games for an 8-7 and 5-2 two-night sweep at Boston Wednesday night.

That made it four in a row and nine out of 12 for the Indians, who moved ahead of Baltimore by 10 percentage points. Detroit and Charlie Maxwell spanked the Baby Birds for the second night in a row, 2-0, in a double three-hit duel between Tiger Frank Lar and Jack Fisher.

The New York Yankees smacked four home runs behind Bob Turley's three-hit pitching and beat Chicago 6-0, moving within a half-game of the third place White Sox. Washington defeated Kansas City 8-6.

In the National League, Pittsburgh beat the Chicago Cubs 5-3 and kept a one-game edge over second place San Francisco. The Giants defeated Cincinnati 2-1. Los Angeles cooled off third place Milwaukee 4-1. Philadelphia beat St. Louis 5-3.

Cleveland made it 5-0 over last place Boston on Held's grand slam, his 11th home run, in the sixth-inning of the nightcap.

Gary Bell (4-4), who had lost three in a row, won the second game with a three-hitter, blanking the Red Sox on one hit until the seventh inning. Jim Perry (6-2) won his fifth in a row in the opener, although giving up Pumpsie Green's first major league slam and solo homers by Ed Sadowski and Pete Runnels.

Johnny Klippstein saved it with three innings of hitless relief. Reliever Mike Fornieles (2-1) lost the opener and Dave Hillman (0-2), who also gave up a home run by Jimmy Piersall, dropped the second game.

All of the Yankees' runs scored on the homers. Mickey Mantle hit two, for a season total of 10 and a career total of 290. Roger Maris, the major league leader, matched his 1959 total with No. 16, and Hector Lopez belted his third. Turley (3-1) gave up nothing but singles. Bob Shaw (5-5) lost for the first time in four career decisions against New York.

Three runs in the eighth, triggered by Julio Becquer's two-run single, did it for the Senators and winning reliever Don Lee (2-1). Trowbridge (1-2) was the loser in relief.

Natural GOLF

Sand Shot

By JIMMY DEMARET

The most indispensable position in golf is the relationship of the wrists, hands and club at impact. They form a straight line.

In a sand shot the feet are parallel to the intended line of flight. The ball is played about midway between the feet. The weight is evenly distributed on the feet, the placement emphasized by the flex of the knees. It's usually a good idea to dig in with the feet in order to secure the stance. Trusting weight to keep you from sliding through the swing can be slippery.

Reaching the top of the backswing, the feet and knees permit the pivot of the hips and shoulders as indicated in the accompanying illustration. The arms and hands are working together to cock the swing. The head is steady.

Keep in mind the fact that the rules forbid the touching of the sand by the club from the time the player enters the trap until impact.

Pivot of hips and shoulders

NEXT: Get behind the ball.

Braves Lose 4-1 to Dodgers

Pirates Beat Cubs, Phils Trip Cards

By The Associated Press Stan Williams, the big right-handed reminder of last year's pennant failure still is haunting those Milwaukee Braves.

It was Williams who beat the Braves with three innings of hitless relief in the final game of the playoff for the 1959 National League flag. And in his first run-in with Milwaukee since then, the 6-foot-4, 230-pounder beat the Braves 4-1 Wednesday night, choking off their spurt toward the top with the help of a pair of two-run, eight-inning homers by Wally Moon and Duke Snider.

The third place Braves dropped 4 1/2 games behind league-leading Pittsburgh again. The Pirates won 5-3 at Chicago and retained a one-game edge over second place San Francisco. The Giants, calling on Sam (Available) Jones for the first time in relief this season, hung on with a 2-1 victory over Cincinnati.

Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 5-4.

In the American League, Cleveland swept a two-night pair at Boston, 8-7 and 5-2, and took over first place by 10 percentage points over Baltimore. The Orioles dropped to second with their second straight loss to Detroit, this one 2-0. The New York Yankees beat Chicago's White Sox 6-0 behind Bob Turley's three-hit pitching. Washington defeated Kansas City 8-6.

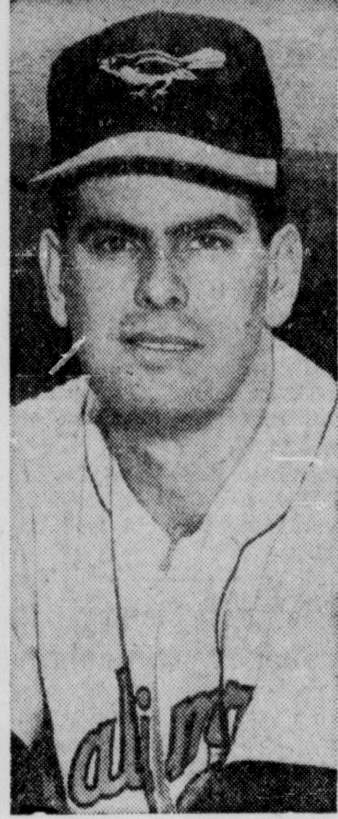

The Dodgers, blanked on five hits for seven in the fifth place as Moon unloaded against losing reliever Don McMahon (1-0) and Snider tagged Bob Rush.

Williams allowed just three hits, two by Wes Covington, before being lifted for a pinch-hitter in the eighth. He walked none and struck out seven giving up the run in the first inning on Billy Bruton's double and Ed Mathews' one-out sacrifice fly.

The Pirates beat the Cubs with Dick Stuart's two-run homer in the fifth. Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell (2-3) had a three-hit shut-out for six innings, then needed Elroy Face's superb relief to win. Bob Anderson (2-2) was the loser.

All the scoring came in the ninth at San Francisco, and all three runs were unearned. Ed Bresoud's two-out, two-run single did it for the Giants, who had been held to four hits for eight innings by loser Jim O'Toole (4-5).

Cincinnati, hitless for 7 1/3 innings against Mike McCormick, scored on singles by Billy Martin and Eddie Kasko and catcher Bob Schmidt's throwing error. Jones (7-4) struck out Frank Robinson and Gus Bell to end the uprising.

FIREBALLER — Chuck Estrada, 23, and extremely fast, joined the phenomenal group of young Baltimore pitchers this season after striking out 178 in 183 innings in the Pacific Coast League last year.

Late Models, Bombs to Race At Canfield

Previous winners will be back in the lineup at Canfield Speedway Saturday night when the late models and modified "bombs" share an eight-race program.

Drivers who have chalked up modified victories are Mike Bice of Scio, Norm Calhoun of Akron and Bob Wiley of Kent. The late model winners have been Wimpy May of Auburn Corners, Frank Myers of Warren and Scotty Rogers of Chagrin Falls.

Drivers still will be going after the $500 award in the time trials. First driver to get under 17 seconds will get the $500.

Bud Cochran posted best time last week. The Sharon speedster was clocked in 17.99. Record for the modifieds for one lap is 17.47 set by Calhoun late last year.

In addition to Bice, Calhoun, Wiley and Cochran, Ernie Lowe of Akron and a host of others will be on hand.

Dean Mast, 1959 Canfield modified champ, is still looking for his first win here. His best showing was a second place. However, the Red No. 75, powered by a big Chrysler engine will be in the thick of action Saturday night.

Jim Florian of Cleveland will be back, too, as will Roy Gemberling, George Lupe, Joe Dowd, John Gaultier and Angie Jarvis.

Rogers will be back in the late model races to try for a repeat win. His competition will include Myers, May, Bill Forney, Gemberling, Cochran, Ed Mitchell, Jim Case, Nook Walters, and others.

Like Mast, Forney, the 1959 late model champ, has yet to gain a victory. He has a third and one fourth.

Time trials will begin at 7 and the first race will get under way at 8:30 p.m.

Bally Ache Is Favored In Belmont Stakes Saturday

NEW YORK (AP) —Bally Ache, all $100,000-plus races. Venetian Way did manage to thrust his nose in front momentarily in the Florida Derby, but Bally Ache came on again to win. He also led for almost a mile in the Kentucky Derby, before Venetian Way took charge.

Eight starters are expected for the Belmont. A front-running victory for Bally Ache would just about clinch the 3-year-old title for the turf syndicate darling.

Nothing ran with Bally Ache to force him in the Preakness and jockey Bobby Ussery set his own slow poke pace.

Who will force the pace in the Belmont? It could be the Merrick Stable's John William, winner of the $117,000 Withers Mile. The Cain Hoy Stable's Tooth And Nail is another colt who can make out for six innings, then needed Elroy Face's superb relief to win.

Bob Anderson (2-2) was the loser. All the scoring came in the ninth at San Francisco, and all three runs were unearned. Ed Bresoud's two-out, two-run single did it for the Giants, who had been held to four hits for eight innings by loser Jim O'Toole (4-5).

Cincinnati, hitless for 7 1/3 innings against Mike McCormick, scored on singles by Billy Martin and Eddie Kasko and catcher Bob Schmidt's throwing error. Jones (7-4) struck out Frank Robinson and Gus Bell to end the uprising.

The Sunny Blue Farm's Venetian Way will be back for another crack at his old rival. The King Ranch's Disperse, son of 1955 Belmont winner Middleground, has the breeding to take it all. The field is rounded out by Howard Keck's Nagea, a long shot from California.

Bob Reiber, an assistant coach here under Bruce, is also transferring to Sandusky.

Farewell Party To Honor Bruce

A farewell party for Salem High's departing head football coach, Earle Bruce, will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Lape Hotel.

Salem Booster Club President Walt DeJane says the party will be open to the public, but admission will be by reservation only. DeJane urges attendance by all Booster Club members.

Reservations, which cost $1, may be made by contacting the Lape Hotel, Dick Loutzenhiser, Walt DeJane, Martin Debnar or any other Booster Club officer.

Bruce, who coached Salem High varsity football squads for the past four seasons, resigned here effective at the end of this school year to assume the head coaching job at Sandusky High School.

Bob Reiber, an assistant coach here under Bruce, is also transferring to Sandusky.

Chevy middleweights get 1/3 more work done in a day!

Where they used to deliver 2,300 gallons of liquefied petroleum gas in other trucks, Petrolane Gas Service of Long Beach, California, can now deliver 3,500 gallons a day! That's 7 days a week usually, over back trails and up into high rock country with maximum GVW loads. And with Chevy's Torsion-Spring Ride paving every foot of the way! "You don't get any more jolting on washboard roads than you do in a passenger car, or any sidesway on curves," says driver Bernie Stone. "I used to take some rough roads at from 5 to 8 miles an hour. Now I can go 30 over them." Petrolane has over 200 Chevrolets hauling for them.

If you think we're excited about Chevy's independent front suspension, you ought to talk to the truck owners who are profiting by it. They'll tell you Chevy's torsion-spring design is the hottest thing to hit the industry since trucks began. Drive one—that's the proof, short and sweet.

Giants' Bressoud Singles In Last of 9th to Jolt Redlegs 2-1

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Fans hard for hitting in your park here, don't know quite what to expect from this current crew of San Francisco Giants.

They can be great one minute and look like comies the next. A couple of lapses might have been serious Wednesday if Eddie Bressoud hadn't singled with the bases loaded and two out in the last of the ninth to drive in two runs.

As it was, the Giants beat Cincinnati 2-1, remaining just one game behind National League leading Pittsburgh. Sam Jones "on his seventh victory of the season instead of being the game's goat in his first relief effort of 1960. Orlando Cepeda scored the winning run after earlier being talked out at second base.

That happened in the seventh with young left-handers Jim O'Toole off Cincinnati and Mike McCormick of San Francisco locked in a pitcher's duel. McCormick hadn't given up a hit. O'Toole had been touched for just four singles and there was Cepeda perched on second with two out and Bressoud being given an intentional walk.

Shortstop Roy McMillan said something like:

Comiskey Resigns White Sox Post

CHICAGO (AP) —There wasn't a Comiskey to be found today in the front office of the Chicago White Sox. That hasn't happened since the club was founded in 1901.

Charles A. (Chuck) Comiskey resigned as executive vice president of the American League ball club Wednesday. His letter expressed no bitterness, but wished Manager Al Lopez, the players and the club success.

Comiskey, who owns 46 per cent of the White Sox, will remain on the board of directors. He said he had no immediate plans, but added:

"I'm going to keep my stock. All I'm going to do right now is get out of the office for a while and spend some time with my family."

White Sox President Bill Veeck, leader of the group which bought majority control of the club from Comiskey's sister, Mrs. Dorothy Rigney, said: "It's a complete surprise to me."

"I have mixed emotions over learning this," Veeck continued. "I regret there no longer will be a Comiskey name in the front office of the White Sox, but if we can't operate in complete harmony it may be just as well."

Easy Win For Machen Over Johnson

CHICAGO (AP)—Eddie Machen the No. 4 heavyweight contender, went through a lot of motion without much progress as he gained his 34th victory against two defeats Wednesday night.

Machen wanted to talk more about the June 20 title bout between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson than his own unanimous decision over elusive Alonzo Johnson in the Chicago Stadium.

The nationally-televised bout produced a lot of swinging and swaying, but nobody came close to being hurt.

"He just clinched a lot and was going away quite a bit," said Machen, who wrestled Johnson to the canvas five times but never could land a solid punch.

Referee Weissman called it for Machen 49-45, while the two judges Jim McManus and Bill Doty voted for Machen 47-45 and 47-44 respectively. The AP card had Machen ahead 49-42.

Machen, from Portland, Ore., weighed 195, and Johnson, from Rankin, Pa., was 189, for the bout which attracted 720 and a net gate of $1,050.

Machen, who was knocked out by Johansson in the first round in 1958, said he hoped to get his next shot against Sonny Liston, No. 1 contender.

It was Johnson's sixth defeat against 18 victories.

Basketball Preview Set Here Nov. 26

The Salem Quakers will play host to Alliance, Kent Roosevelt and Massillon High Schools in a basketball preview on Saturday, Nov. 26, at the Salem High Gym.

Athletic Director Fred Cope announced that each of the schools participating will receive one fourth of the net receipts. Lunch will be served to all players in the school cafeteria after the preview.

Salem's first annual basketball preview was held last year when Massillon, Kent Roosevelt and Cuyahoga Falls appeared here with the Quakers.

The preview will come two weeks before Salem is scheduled to open its season on Dec. 9 at home against Columbus East.

NEW ALEXANDER WINS

New Alexander defeated Kensington 7-3 Tuesday for its second straight victory in the United Baseball League.

Randy Engle pounded out a single, double and triple for New Alexander. Wayne Smith, the winning hurler, gave up only two hits. The game was played at New Alexander.

The title in the past two years has gone from the Brunen's to the Gallagher's and now to the Tolose's, all brother teams.

Three supporting matches are being lined up for the June 18 card at Idora Park by Promoter Vince Risko.

The Cincinnati Reds stole 23 bases in their first 28 attempts this spring.

Baker Named Manager Pro Tem of Red Sox

BOSTON (AP) — Del Baker wants it known he is a fill-in for ailing Manager Billy Jurges of the Boston Red Sox who are on a one-way elevator marked "down."

The 68-year-old Baker said Wednesday night before the Sox doubleheader loss to Cleveland he had even less desire after the twir 8-7, 5-2 beatings by which the visitors took over first place in the American League.

Coach Baker became manager pro-tem Wednesday after Jurges was relieved of command for reasons of health. Jurges underwent a physical examination by two doctors who said he was under heavy strain.

There was no firing, no release, no resignation.
"We do not know how long Jurges will be out so we are not contemplating a managerial change," General Manager Bucky Harris said. "We plan to wait and see how Jurges feels after he has rested."

Strawberry Season to Commence

The fruit of the week is the local crop of strawberries, reports Ed Watkins, Market Information Agent with the Agricultural Extension Service.

Locally grown berries should be available in small quantity by the end of this week with the bulk of the crop being available during the next two weeks. The berry season is a bit late this year and with good weather will probably stretch through the fourth of July.

Berries should be selected which have a reasonable red color, are fairly well shaped, bright and fresh in appearance and are dry and clean.

Oranges and bananas provide the bulk of the fresh fruit at this time. The value of Florida oranges goes down (and the price goes up) but California oranges come in to replace them during the summer months.

Canned fruits in best supply are pears, peaches, applesauce, and fruit cocktail. These are, generally speaking, the economical choices also. Canned products carry many brand names, many times making choices difficult. Highly advertised brands are the familiar names, but are usually a bit higher in price.

Brands carrying the store name are generally Grade A merchandise — the quality is good. It is usually best to try only one can of an unknown brand to see if it satisfies your requirements. The quality of any one brand is fairly uniform during the year. Unfortunately, there is little relationship between quality and price in canned foods. The best advice is that when you find a canned product which you like stick with that brand regardless of whether it is a well known "name" brand, a store brand or a little known one.

Teen-agers having a party? Have a variety of frozen fruit juices on hand—orange, pineapple, grape and grapefruit—and let them mix their own punch.

Ever try mixing chicken and lobster for a salad? Hollow out frankfurter rolls, butter and toast them and then fill with the poultry and seafood mixture.

Chicken Cacciatore

Four to 5 - pound ready-to-cook roasted chicken. ½ cup flour, 3 teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon paprika, ¼ teaspoon thyme or oregano, ¼ teaspoon black pepper, 2 cups (1 pound) stewed potatoes, cup chopped green pepper, ½ cup chopped onion, ½ cup chopped celery, 1 clove garlic, mashed; 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce (optional).

Remove fat from body cavity of chicken. Melt fat in large skillet or Dutch oven.

Pour off all but ¼ cup fat to use for browning chicken. Cut chicken into uniform serving pieces. Combine flour, salt, paprika, thyme, and pepper. Roll pieces of chicken in this seasoned flour to coat evenly.

Brown the chicken thoroughly in the fat. Heat together 5 minutes tomatoes, green pepper, onion, celery, garlic, Worcestershire sauce and liquid only from mushrooms. Pour over chicken in skillet. Cover.

Simmer 2½ hours or until chicken is fork tender. Spoon sauce over chicken 2 or 3 times during cooking. Remove cover. Remove chicken to hot platter.

Stir mushrooms into sauce and boil to blend. To serve, pour sauce over chicken. Sprinkle with cheese if desired.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Readers: Several weeks ago a letter appear in this space asking what I thought about a newborn baby who had blue eyes when both the parents had very dark brown eyes.

I suggested that the reader write to me in about six weeks because ALL newborn babies have eyes that appear to be blue.

I did not mean to imply that if the baby's eyes didn't turn brown something was amiss. Many readers apparently got this impression, however, and the results have been devastating.

I've received an avalanche of letters from blue-eyed, brown-eyed, green-eyed and gray-eyed readers—all wide-eyed. They have informed me in singularly emphatic tones that their eyes are not the color of either parent but nothing is fishy in their family.

It wish to make it clear that although the odds are against two brown-eyed people's producing a blue-eyed baby, it CAN and DOES happen in the very best of families. —ANN LANDERS.

Mama's Boy at 52

Dear Ann Landers: Two years ago I met an interesting man who is now 52 and never has married. He lives with his parents who are in their 70s.

I have three children, all grown, and I am divorced. His mother will not invite me to their home so we have never met. Both his parents are dead set against his marrying me. They are trying to push him into a marriage with a 32-year-old family friend whom he has dated (platonically) for 12 years.

I think it's time we got married or called it quits. He says his folks will never accept me and has suggested that we wait until they die.

We are deeply in love and I know I could make him a very good wife. He says if I loved him I'd be willing to wait. What is your advice?—DIM VIEW.

Dear Dim: This man has been of age for 31 years. His suggestion that you wait around for his parents to die is a gross insult, not a proposal.

A man 52 who lacks the maturity and independence to tell his parents he has met the woman of his choice and is going to marry her sounds like second-rate husband material.

Daughter's Baby

Dear Ann: Our daughter lives out of the city. She is a nice, quiet girl but something went wrong and she had a baby girl two months after the wedding. No one in this city knows yet as the baby is only a few weeks old.

I had a letter from her yesterday saying that her husband has been transferred to a new city which is 2,000 miles away. She wants to come home for a few weeks before they move out West, as they'll probably be unable to come home for at least three years. She plans to bring the baby along.

I dread having to face people and explain the sudden addition to the family. I told my husband I think they should leave the baby elsewhere and pick her up after the visit. My husband says we might as well face the shame and get it over with.

What do you say?—CONFUSED.

Dear Confused: You can't hide a baby by putting a slip-cover over it, as if it were a worn-out sofa. The news of the early edition is going to get out sooner or later.

Since your daughter has announced that she would like to come home with the baby, tell her to be prepared to answer some pointed questions.

Let her handle all inquiries in her own way. Simply refused to become involved in explanations or apologies.

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a grandmother who is writing to ask if I am a dim-witted old lady who raised her five children wrong. When I see what is happening in my son's home, with his three, it is apparent that someone is terribly confused.

This is what happened last Sunday.

Jimmy, who will be 5 years old in July, was walking around the living room in his pajamas. It was 11 p.m. and several guests were present. His father suggested (after the boy had stuffed his mouth with peanuts and cocktail crackers) that he go to bed. His mother said with a shrug, "He'll go to bed when he's tired."

One of the guests suggested turning on the TV to see a special news broadcast. My son turned on the set and Jimmy went over to the guest and said, "Get out of the chair so I can sit here."

The guest was nonplused but actually got up and moved. About 10 minutes later the guest left—peevish. My son said, "Jimmy, dear, you should not have asked the guest to move. It's all right to ask Mommy or Daddy to move but not a guest."

I'd like your opinion, Ann. —

Dear Know Nothing: When parents write to me, disillusioned and heartbroken because their children show no respect or ignore them completely, it's because when those kids were young, they were permitted to sass adults, walk all over their parents and shove them out of chairs.

These unfortunate children who grow up with the notion that the world is going to move over for them find it very tough going, indeed.

Alligator Farm

Dear Ann: My younger brother is the baby of the family. He's been very good to them. We also have a baby of our own.

Every time I see his wallet on the dresser I get a hurt feeling. Shall I mention it to him?—SECOND WIFE.

Dear Second: Say nothing. Your husband cannot bring himself to replace his first wife's picture because he probably has faint feelings of guilt.

Widows and widowers who remarry sometimes experience this. It doesn't mean he doesn't love you, it only means the wounds haven't healed completely.

One day he'll make the change on his own. Wait.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Salem News, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

It was a gala moment here in Washington the other day when the Hod Carriers and Common Laborers Union president, Joseph V. Moreschi, enthusiastically dedicated the new eight-story, special Indiana limestone bronze spandrelled Joseph V. Moreschi headquarters building. Many prominent men though an honor well deserved by the Common Laborers chief now in his 70s.

Moreschi has labored long in the vineyard — 34 years as unchallenged president — and is reaping merely $30,000 a year in salary, $9,000 in allowances and $1,666.75 in reimbursable expenses.

All the books balance at the national headquarters. What troubled some observers, however, are the union's outlying baronies.

There is Local 404 in Brooklyn, N.Y., for example, which had as its president a crime syndicate hood by the name of Vincent Rao who ranked as a powerful delegate to the combine's convention in Apalachicola, N.Y.

When this scandal broke, word came swiftly from the national Hod Carriers that an investigation would soon determine just how all this could happen.

If there was such a probe, it has been lost to the archives of progress. The federal and state authorities are in on it now.

When their findings are released, there will be chagrin and a keen sense of persecution in the new limestone tower.

Before these officials feel set upon, they might give a thought to the rank-and-file. These leaders and their colleagues in other unions might look about and see what's developed since the McClellan committee tightened its belt and the U.S. Department of Labor, under James Mitchell, took over enforcement of workers' rights and labor as it says it should under the Labor and Management Reporting and Disclosure Act.

If there is any sensitivity in the upper echelons on the higher floors of some unions, they will react to these Landrum-Griffin law reports, which have not yet been in the public prints.

There are now 611 active investigations of depredations inside labor. Probing these are the FBI and the Bureau of Labor-Management Reports compliance division.

Of these cases, 53 involve embezzlement.

There are 29 charges of violence. The officer-convict provisions appear to have been violated 28 times.

This means that 28 officials in a number of unions may not have reported that they had been in jail in the past five years.

There also are 10 alleged violations of the officer-Communist provision — meaning that these 10 may have been members of the Communist party in the past five years — or still are.

ADD TO this substantial evidence of 85 fiduciary violations by officials. This says that the officials involved did not treat union funds as other people's money, as a bank official, for example, would treat deposits.

Apparently money is not the root of all evil in the local unions being probed. There have been 83 possible violations of the bill of rights section of the law.

This section gives the rank-and-file members the right to speak up and vote as they wish without getting slugged, threatened or expelled.

As for that apparently abstract theory that all elections should be free and open, there have been 113 charges of local election violations sufficiently important to warrant a federal probe.

Perhaps the local indiscretions will not embarrass the national leadership. But what of the seven alleged violations of national elections in that number of coast-to-coast unions?

This is the score as the law rolls into its ninth month. Enforcing it is a stupendous job. There have been 89,161 reports of all types filed with Mr. Mitchell's Labor Department. It is a measure of the task that the Department has dispatched 25,000 letters to unions seeking clarification of these reports.

It is fine to build bright new labor temples. But what of those who desecrate the principles for which they stand — allegedly?

Stuffed Mushrooms

Twenty-four large (jumbo-size) mushrooms, 2 tablespoons butter, ¼ cup dry white table wine (or water with lemon juice), 1 can (6-ounce) Hollandaise sauce (¾ cup), ¼ cup commercial sour cream, 1 tablespoon lemon juice.

¼ teaspoon crumbled dried tarragon, 2 cups fresh Dungeness crab or canned crab meat, 24 California walnut halves.

Pull stems from mushrooms and save for another purpose. Simmer mushrooms in a mixture of butter and wine (or water and lemon juice) for 5 minutes, or until tender.

Mix together the Hollandaise, sour cream, lemon juice and tarragon. Add crab and toss lightly. Pile into steamed mushroom caps and top with a walnut half.

Strawberry Torte Is Treat

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

An inquiring cook's fancy turns to torte. What are they anyway? She has heard of Schaum Torte with fresh strawberries and would appreciate a recipe.

Irma Rombauer, America's famous cookbook author, puts torte under the heading of cake in her "Joy of Cooking." Webster, agreeing with Mrs. Rombauer, says a torte is "literally cake, especially the rich variety. Specifically a sticky cake made of nuts, fruits, white of egg, often crumbs, and very little, if any flour."

I take issue with this definition on one point, and I'm sure Mrs. Rombauer would support me: all torte are not sticky! Schaum Torte is a meringue. When I was a little girl my mother and her friends made it a toasty affair, using at least six egg whites and baking it in a spring form pan. Nowadays cooks often make a small Schaum Torte with two to four egg whites, bake it in a pie plate and sometimes call it Angel Pie.

SMALL SCHAUM TORTE

Ingredients: 2 large egg whites (at room temperature), 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 quart medium-sized strawberries, 1 cup heavy cream.

Method: Grease bottom and sides of a heat-resistant glass pie plate (inside dimension 7 1/2 by 1 1/4 inches). Beat the egg whites with the salt and cream of tartar until they hold rounded peaks.

Beat in 1/2 cup of the sugar, a tablespoon at a time; continue beating until glossy stiff straight peaks form. Spread evenly on bottom and sides of prepared pie plate but not on rim, have sides come up about 1/2-inch above inner edge of plate. Bake in slow (275 degrees) oven 55 to 60 minutes—meringue will be tan color.

Cool partly; loosen meringue from pie plate.

Hull berries; reserve half and sprinkle with 1 tablespoon of the remaining sugar; halve remaining berries and sprinkle with another tablespoon sugar. Whip cream with remaining 2 tablespoons sugar; chill. Immediately before serving, drain berries; fill meringue with 3 layers of cream alternating with 2 layers of halved berries; begin and end with cream; garnish with whole berries. Makes 6 servings.

Note: For a fancy edge on the torte, spread meringue in rim of pie plate; force a little meringue through a pastry tube with rossette tip to decorate rim with line of rosettes. In this case gently loosen edges of meringue from sides of plate as soon as it comes from the oven.

Russian Chicken Kiev Reigns Supreme

When New York's "My Fair Lady" opened recently in Moscow, the Russians toasted the troupe in champagne and fed them Chicken Kiev. That fabulous dish from the Czarist cuisine is still reigning. The fascination of this dish lies in the way it's put together. A goodly portion of hard butter is enclosed in half a chicken breast. Then the tight package is rolled in bread crumbs and fried until golden brown. When fork and knife make their way through the crisp crust and into the succulent white meat, the butter spurts out and gushes forth like a fountain, providing a marvelously flavored sauce.

Chicken Kiev

Ingredients: 4 whole chicken breasts (from large broilers), salt, pepper, 1/4 pound hard-chilled butter, 1/4 cup flour, 1/4 cup milk, 1 cup fine fresh bread crumbs, corn oil (for frying).

Method: Prepare breasts. Place each piece of breast between two sheets of waxed paper; pound with flat side of cleaver or wooden mallet until meat spreads out into a thin slice; remove waxed paper.

Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cut butter into 8 equal crosswise pieces. Place a piece of butter off center toward narrow thick end of each piece of chicken; fold thick end over butter; roll over piece tightly and press down edge; turn under side edges, press down and fasten with toothpick. Dust rolls with flour, roll in milk, then in crumbs. Refrigerate 1 hour or more.

Heat corn oil in a flatbottomed heavy saucepan (1 quart of oil is right for a 3-quart pan) to 375 degrees.

Add rolls slowly; turn with spoon to cook and brown all over—3 to 5 minutes (lower temperature if rolls get too brown). If rolls are fried in two batches, keep first batch warm in slow (250 degrees) oven. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes 4 to 8 servings.

To Prepare Chicken Breasts: Cut in half; remove skin and keel bone. With points of slender paring knife, slit between meat and bones with small strokes, at the same time pulling meat away with other hand; be careful not to tear meat.

To Make Fine Fresh Crumbs: Cut crusts from slices of day-old firm-type white bread; cut into small squares; use electric blender to crumb or put through coarse sieve with wooden spoon.

Halve a fresh tomato and gently squeeze out the seeds, then dice. Add it to cole slaw or condensed tomato soup for fresh and interesting flavor.
